Engineering Design Process Post-Assessment

Engineering Design Process Post-Assessment
Below there are steps within the engineering design process that need to be placed in order. Label them in numerical order with how to work through the engineering design process. _____ Redesign _____ Select the best design _____ Communicate findings _____ Build a prototype _____ Identify the problem or need _____ Test and analyze the prototype _____ Research the problem or need _____ Create possible designs for the prototype